Meteorologist's View

An excellent day to be out on the hills. Make sure to protect your skin in the lengthy sunshine as UV levels are expected to be high.

Forecast for Sunday 29 May 2022

Weather: Largely clear skies through the early hours of Sunday but with the risk of some shallow mist and fog patches forming in valleys, although quick to clear once the Sun rises. Cloud building through the morning, leading to some hazy sunshine but also the risk of occasional showers, perhaps heavy at times. The showers easing off into the evening with some clear periods developing.

Maximum wind: Northeasterly 10mph.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 90% in the early hours and into the evening, falling to 70% during the day.

Low Cloud and visibility: Cloud occasionally obscuring routes above 500m, most likely in association with showers, but otherwise mainly above summit level. Showers will also reduce visibility for a time. Otherwise very good visibility is expected.

Temperature: Valleys: Plus 6 Celsius, rising to Plus 15 Celsius.
At 800m: Plus 4 Celsius.
Freezing level: Above the summits.
